THE JACKSONVILLE SYMPHONY'S STRINGS WILL PERFORM AT UNF'S LAZZARA PERFORMANCE HALL ON OCTOBER 27

Jacksonville, FL (October 18, 2017) --- The Jacksonville Symphony's string section will perform at the University of North Florida's Lazzara Performance Hall on Friday, October 27 at 8:00pm.

WHO: The concert will be conducted by Jacksonville Symphony Assistant Conductor and JSYO Principal Conductor Deanna Tham. The concert is a special program featuring the Symphony's string section without the rest of the orchestra.

WHAT: The concert will feature the string section of the Jacksonville Symphony: violin, viola, cello and bass. The ensemble will play parts of Henry Purcell's The Fairy Queen as well as a selection of pieces by Astor Piazzolla. Known for his revolution of the tradition tango, Piazzolla's heavy jazz and tango influence can be heard throughout the works to be performed. The concert will end with Antonín Dvořák's Serenade in E major for String Orchestra, a well-known work that can be heard in the 1996 movie Jumanji, the TV show Gotham as well as the hit drama-comedy Mozart in the Jungle.

WHEN/WHERE: The concert will be held at UNF's Lazzara Performance Hall at 8:00pm on Friday, October 27.

CONCERTMASTER SEARCH: During the extensive search for a new concertmaster the Jacksonville Symphony will be bringing in seven candidates to perform with the Symphony during the season. For this concert, Julia Noone will take the stage with Deanna Tham and the Jacksonville Symphony string orchestra.

Native of Worcester, Massachusetts, Noone currently serves as the assistant concertmaster for the Louisville Orchestra. Noone has recently performed with the Boston Symphony Orchestra and as a guest Associate Principal with the Royal Scottish National Orchestra.

TICKETS: For more information or to purchase tickets, please visit JaxSymphony.org or call the Ticket Office at 904.354.5547.
