

JACKSONVILLE SYMPHONY PARTNERS WITH COWFORD CHOPHOUSE
Restaurant to host free pop-up concert on March 28

Jacksonville, FL (March 20, 2018) --- The Jacksonville Symphony will present a pop-up, rooftop concert with a string trio at Cowford Chophouse on March 28. The concert will bring together two local entities for a night of great food and entertainment.

The ensemble will feature Jacksonville Symphony violist Jorge A. Peña, with Gabriela and Jin Kim. The trio will play two identical 30-minute sets featuring classic trio repertoire by Beethoven and Mozart to introduce the symphony experience to Cowford Chophouse guests.

The sets will begin at 6 p.m. and 7 p.m., with a 30-minute break between sessions.

“Partnering with the Jacksonville Symphony and supporting their work in the community is a natural fit for us,” said Cowford Chophouse owner Jacques Klempf. “The Jacksonville Symphony is an incredible asset for our region, and their impact is felt everywhere — especially in Downtown Jacksonville. We look forward to opening up our space for members of the community to enjoy the Symphony’s work and learn more about their programs.”

Limited seating will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations will not be accepted for the roof, but are encouraged for guests who would like to dine in the restaurant before or after one of the sets.

The pop-up concert will help promote the Symphony’s series designed for young professionals, Regency Centers Symphony in 60. Symphony in 60 features a one-hour Masterworks concert book-ended by happy hours.

###

The Jacksonville Symphony is North Florida’s leading music nonprofit offering live performances at Jacoby Symphony Hall in the Times-Union Center for the Performing Arts and other venues throughout the area. In addition, the Symphony provides music instruction for youth and operates the Jacksonville Symphony Youth Orchestras. For more information about the Symphony, visit JaxSymphony.org, like them at facebook.com/JaxSymphony; follow them on @jaxsymphony, on Instagram at JaxSymphony and on YouTube at JacksonvilleSymphony.