

JACKSONVILLE SYMPHONY ANNOUNCES PARTNERSHIP WITH BLACK KNIGHT PROVIDING FREE TICKETS TO ACTIVE MILITARY AND VETERANS

Jacksonville, FL (March 24, 2021) --- The Jacksonville Symphony and Black Knight recently signed a sponsorship agreement that will bring free Symphony tickets to veterans and active members of the U.S. military. Titled the “Black Knight Veterans Ticket Program,” the sponsorship will provide 300 free tickets for veterans and active members of the U.S. military throughout the remainder of the 2020/21 Jacksonville Symphony season.

“The Jacksonville Symphony is committed to expanding access to the arts,” says Symphony President & CEO Steven Libman. “We are incredibly grateful that Black Knight’s sponsorship will provide us the amazing opportunity to expand that access to active members of our military, veterans, and their families.”

The Black Knight Veterans Ticket Program will allow veterans and active members of the U.S. military with valid documentation to receive two complimentary tickets to select performances. Additional tickets can also be purchased at a reduced price point unique to members and veterans of the U.S. military.

“Black Knight is proud to help the Jacksonville Symphony honor our nation’s veterans and Gold Star families,” said Anthony Jabbour, Black Knight Chief Executive Officer. “Supporting those who sacrifice so much for this country is important to us as an organization, and to me personally as a board member of the Folded Flag Foundation. Through this sponsorship, we are honored to be able to support both our community and our local service members.”
