Jacksonville Symphony Presents World Premiere of “Rocky in Concert”

Jacksonville, Fla - The Jacksonville Symphony proudly announces the world premiere performance of “Rocky in Concert,” a brand-new symphonic experience that brings the iconic film to life like never before. Viewers can relive the classic tale of Rocky Balboa on the big screen while the Jacksonville Symphony performs Bill Conti’s legendary score live to picture. This performance takes place on November 18 and 19 at 7 p.m. in Jacoby Symphony Hall.

“I’m so thrilled to be leading the Jacksonville Symphony and our audiences through the epic journey of ‘Rocky,’ with our world premiere performance of the score live to picture,” said Associate Conductor Kevin Fitzgerald. “Enter the ring with us for an unforgettable experience of sight and sound!”

“Rocky in Concert” is one of three symphonic movie performances in the Jacksonville Symphony’s Symphonic Night at the Movies Series, sponsored by FIS.
