Jacksonville Symphony Appoints New Board and Advisory Council Members

Jacksonville, Fla – The Jacksonville Symphony is pleased to announce that four new members have joined its Board of Directors. Coming from finance, business, entrepreneurship and consulting backgrounds, the newly appointed board members bring years of experience and leadership to help provide high-level oversight and consultation on all Jacksonville Symphony activities and performances. The Symphony welcomes the following individuals to the Board of Directors:

Brian Fay, Americas Head of Operations and Head of Deutsche Bank Jacksonville

Edward Skinner Jones, Owner and Developer of Skinner Jones LLC

Matthew Marcin, Executive Director, Head of J.P. Morgan Private Bank, Jacksonville

Conchita Robinson, President and Principal Consultant, C Robinson Associates, INC

“I’m thrilled to be expanding our Board of Directors,” said Steven Libman, President and CEO. “These individuals bring unique perspectives on both the Jacksonville community and the arts world as a whole. With their added insight and business experiences, the Symphony’s Board is stronger than ever as we close out the 22-23 Season and prepare for the 23/24 Season.”

“Our Board of Directors is comprised of a dedicated team of community leaders committed to upholding the Symphony’s mission to enrich the human spirit through symphonic music,” said Board Chair Don Baldwin. “We are excited welcome these four new members and I’m looking forward to all the great work we’ll accomplish together.”

In addition, the Symphony has also appointed the following members to its newly formed Advisory Council:

- Monica Hernández, VP of Asset Services Control, Global Markets at Bank of America
- Branita Mann, Speech-Language Pathologist
- Patricia McElroy, Senior VP at VyStar Credit Union, President of VyStar Foundation
- Nikeshia Elise Williams, Producer, Author and Founder of NEW Reads Publications
- John S. Willim, Corporate Finance Executive and Strategic Planning Officer
