Free Community Concerts with the Jacksonville Symphony

Jacksonville, Fla. (August 13, 2024) – The Jacksonville Symphony is excited to announce the return of their annual free community concerts on September 6 and 7, 2024 at 7:30 p.m. in Jacoby Symphony Hall. The concerts, led by Associate Conductor Kevin Fitzgerald, feature a sneak peek of the upcoming 75th Season with a mix of pops and classical pieces, including John Williams’ Star Wars Suite for Orchestra, Pyotr Tchaikovsky’s Symphony No. 5, Madonna and Shep Pettibone’s “Vogue” and more.

To view the full program and reserve tickets please visit JaxSymphony.org or call the Box Office at 904.354.5547. Tickets are limited to four per person.

The Community Concerts are sponsored by Haskell.

About the Jacksonville Symphony

The Jacksonville Symphony is North Florida’s leading nonprofit performing arts organization offering live performances at Jacoby Symphony Hall in the Jacksonville Center for the Performing Arts and other venues throughout the area. Led by President and CEO Steven Libman and Music Director Courtney Lewis, the Jacksonville Symphony reaches over 129,000 individuals through over 95 performances each season. In addition, the Symphony provides music instruction for 70,000 youth and operates the Jacksonville Symphony Youth Orchestras. For more information about the Symphony, visit JaxSymphony.org.
