Jacksonville Symphony Announces Two New Board Members

Jacksonville, Fla. (October 18, 2024) – The Jacksonville Symphony is excited to announce the addition of two new members to its Board of Directors: Annette Salsman and Rajeeb K. Das. Both Salsman and Das bring decades of leadership experience and deep involvement in the arts community. Their appointments bring the board to 30 members as the Symphony celebrates its 75th Anniversary Season.

“We are thrilled to welcome two additional talents, Annette and Rajeeb, to our Board of Directors,” said Steven Libman, President and CEO of the Jacksonville Symphony. “As we celebrate our 75th Anniversary Season, their invaluable perspectives will play a key role in helping the Symphony continue to grow and serve our community.”

Annette Salsman

Salsman is passionate about the power of classical music and its vital role in creating a thriving community. She brings a unique experience of playing an instrumental role in merging three art forms, the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra, Dayton Opera and Dayton Ballet, into the Dayton Performing Arts Alliance—a first in the country. Additionally, Salsman has had leadership roles with the New Neighbor’s League of Dayton, U.S. Fencing Association Western Division and the Oregon Home Education Network.

Rajeeb K. Das, CPA

Das is a seasoned deal advisor with extensive expertise in financial derivatives and instruments. He is a partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, where he advises on multi-billion-dollar projects. Previously, he served for nearly a decade as their Transaction Services Deal Managing Director. Known for his teaching style, Das is often referred to as the “professor” for his commitment to educating clients and empowering them to make informed decisions. He is also proud to be an active guest lecturer at several universities.
