Jacksonville Symphony Announces New Board Officers

Jacksonville, Fla. (June 3, 2024) – The Jacksonville Symphony announces four new board officers: Matthew Marcin, CFA, Kevin Craig, Conchita Robinson and Dr. Anjali Lueck who will begin their two-year terms July 1, 2024. Each member has shown impressive skills throughout their tenure on the Board of Directors including strong leadership, high-level consulting and a firm belief in the Symphony's mission of bringing symphonic music to the community. The Symphony congratulates the following individuals on their new board positions:

Matthew Marcin, CFA, Board Chair

Kevin Craig, Board Vice-Chair

Conchita Robinson, Board Treasurer

Dr. Anjali Lueck, Board Secretary

“As we enter our monumental 75th Season I'm thrilled to welcome such stellar individuals to these officer positions. Each has proven to be an invaluable asset to the board, and we are confident they'll strengthen the organization during the busy and exciting years ahead” said Steven Libman, President and CEO of the Jacksonville Symphony.

Matthew Marcin, CFA

Marcin is Executive Director and the Head of J.P. Morgan Private Bank for the Jacksonville area. With more than a decade of investment and finance experience at the Private Bank, Marcin is highly skilled in the relationship management aspect of the business. He is a member of the Morgan Circle, a select group of Advisors within the Private Bank who have been honored for their commitment to excellence. Marcin joined the Jacksonville Symphony Board of Directors in 2022 and served as Vice-Chair providing expert level financial consulting and investment insights.

Kevin Craig

Kevin Craig serves as Regional Director of Corporate External & Legislative Affairs for AT&T in North Florida. A Jacksonville native, Kevin is responsible for AT&T's corporate engagement and advocacy efforts with state and local elected officials, non-profit organizations and other business groups across 15 North Florida counties. Kevin has served four years on the Jacksonville Symphony Board of Directors providing top-level engagement strategies and advocacy efforts. He is also part of the Here Tomorrow Board of Directors, City of Jacksonville Mayor's Film & Television Advisory Commission and the Wolfson Children's Hospital Development Council.

Conchita Robinson

From her past senior leadership roles at IBM and Spencer Stuart to her current role as the President and Principal Consultant at C Robinson Associates, Inc. Conchita Robinson is an expert in organizational development and project management. Robinson joined the Jacksonville Symphony Board of Directors just last year but quickly showed her experience and skills, as well as a deep commitment to the Symphony's mission of bringing symphonic music to the community.

Dr. Anjali Lueck

Dr. Anjali Lueck is a Jacksonville native who has been serving the community for over 20 years as a dentist. Dr. Lueck has provided insights on DEI initiatives and community-focused programming since joining the Jacksonville Symphony Board of Directors in 2023. Her immense passion to serve the Jacksonville community and facilitate the broader reach of our arts and cultural institutions is greatly appreciated.
