Jacksonville Symphony Presents Parrots + Palms: The Songs of Buffett & Fins

Jacksonville, Fla. (July 24, 2024) – The Jacksonville Symphony presents the world premiere of Parrots + Palms: The Songs of Buffett & Fins on September 13 and 14, 2024 at Jacoby Symphony Hall. Co-produced by the Jacksonville Symphony and Spot-On Entertainment, this production comes to fruition after 18 months of planning and will include the hits of Jimmy Buffett, Bob Marley, Van Morrison, The Beach Boys and more.

“We started planning this show over a year and a half ago, aiming to capture the essence and laid-back joy of these iconic songs and artists, specifically Jimmy Buffett’s songs that reflect his love for adventure, nature and simple pleasures,” said Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer Tori Fusinaz. “This is music that makes you feel like you’re on vacation, even in Jacoby Symphony Hall.”

Celebrated vocalists will join the Symphony led by Kevin Fitzgerald, Associate Conductor to perform timeless hits such as “Come Monday,” “Fins,” “Kokomo,” “Don’t Worry, Be Happy,” “It’s Five O’Clock Somewhere,” “Brown-Eyed Girl” and so many more.

“Whether you’re already a fan of symphonic music or you just want to immerse yourself in the music you love, this concert promises to have you singing along as you’re transported to a tropical paradise,” said President and CEO Steven Libman. “It’s a wonderful way to open the Pops Series in our 75th Season and to introduce newcomers to all the Jacksonville Symphony has to offer.”

Tickets are available at JaxSymphony.org or by calling the Box Office at (904) 354-5547.
